

GENERAL PSYCHOLOGY I (PUM 113)

Course Objectives :

This course is design to give students a basic overview of psychology, the field of psychology and the relation between psychology with other disciplines; Recognized and understand the history of psychology science along with its well-known people; Understand about division of psychology (developmental, clinical, industrial & organizational and educational)

Topics:

1. Introduction to scientific psychology
2. Major perspectives in psychology
3. Research method in psychology
4. Biological foundations of behavior
5. Sensation & Perception
6. State of consciousness
7. Developmental psychology
8. Personality and assesment
9. Abnormality and psychotherapy
10. Psychology applied to Industry and Organization
11. Psychology in Educational area

References:

1. Lahey, Benyamin, B. 2005. Psychology an Introduction. 9th edition. New York. McGraw-Hill Book Company.
2. Sarwono, S.W. 1992. Berkenalan dengan tokoh-tokoh dan aliran-aliran dalam Psikologi. Jakarta : Bulan Bintang.
3. Atkinson & Hilgard, Edward E. Smith dkk. 2006. Introduction to Psychology. 14th edition. USA. Thomson, Wadsworth,